Local committees are requested to make arrangements for the members.

When the republicans unite, the democrats take to the woods.

It is estimated that there are one blind person to every 1,500 inhabitants in Wisconsin.

The republicans of Michigan are "peculiarily blest this year. There are no warring factions there and the party will cast a full vote and gain a big victory.

This country seems large enough to hold "Jersey Lily" Langtry, and "San-flower" Wilde, at the same time. It is a great country. It can stand a great deal.

At first the democrats were going to elect Mr. Winans. But after holding several meetings here and there, they think it best not to count chickens before they are hatched.

Mr. Charles Wyndham, the actor, paid

$120 for a box seat for Mrs. Langtry's first performance. He is a bigger tondy than the public supposed he was. The pragmatic seats sold all the way from $1.50 to $15.50 each.

There are a good many queer things connected with this campaign, but the quickest is that the name of Mr. Thomas M. Nichol is not bobbing around among the newspapers. He must have experienced a change of heart.

The report comes again that North Carolina will go republican. That report has been sent out every year for a long time

As long as the democrats have the counting of the votes in North Carolina, the state will go democratic. A democratic count is mightier than republican votes.

The very latest thing in the way of a kid glove, and it is said to be just the sweetest thing out, is one which extends up the arm, over the shoulders, and buttons behind. To be sure gloves of this fashion came high but it is suggested that those who wear them can probably do without some of the other clothing heretofore worn.

Governor Blackburn, of Kentucky, has made the comforting announcement that he will retire from private life when his present term expires. Like Governor Crittenden, of Missouri, he has pardoned many criminals that they may go their way and commit further crimes, instead of wasting their time in the penitentiary.

Milwaukee has another sensation in the way of the mysterious disappearance of a child. This time it is a little girl, 12 years old, the daughter of Captain Hennecke. It has not been seen for two days.

Captain Hennecke is a wealthy man, and it may be possible that some one has kidnapped it for the purpose of receiving a large reward. By the advice of the sheriff of Milwaukee county, a reward of only $200 was offered.

There are hopeful indications that General Winkler will be elected to congress from the Milwaukee district. The Evening Wisconsin says: "If M. Menzel declares General Winkler will have at least 1,500 majority, because many who have heretofore voted for Denster will no longer support a mere obstructionist; and because the former has better qualifications than the latter for a good congressman."

Mr. A. V. Knapp, of Grant county, was put on the prohibition county central committee, but declined the empty honor in words that stamp him as a level-headed republican:

"I am radically in favor of temperance and have been from boyhood, and will therefore support the republican ticket.

I am opposed to an independent temperance party. The republican party has done, and is doing more to-day, for temperance and the elevation of humanity, than any organization, or all organizations combined."

Miss Emilie Gavin, who died suddenly in Europe yesterday, was born and educated in Chicago, and after graduating from the high school, became a teacher in the public schools. Developing some talent for dramatic reading, she went, under the advice of friends, to New York, where she studied under Steele MacKaye.

After making a successful tour of the Northwest under the management of the Slayton Lyceum bureau, she turned her attention to the stage, and played with John McCullough at Haverly's theater, taking the parts of Lady Macbeth and Mary, Queen of Scots.

The Hon. James Sutherland spoke at Hanover on Wednesday evening to an overflowing house. He spoke one hour and ten minutes, and could have spoken one hour longer to the satisfaction of the audience. The republicans there are wide-awake, as the meeting was an enthusiastic one, and cheered the speaker heartily and frequently. Mr.

Sutherland gave them an excellent speech, one which will do good. He is assured that the republicans there will give a good account of themselves on election day. Such meetings as the one addressed by Mr. Sutherland at Hanover, should be held in every town in Rock county during the next ten days. They are needed, and would be a good investment.

The remains of the lamented Miss Adelaide Phillips have been buried at Marshall, not far from the spot where lies all that is mortal of Daniel Webster.

The funeral was held in Boston on Wednesday, at King's chapel, and that great building was not large enough to hold the vast throng that made its way thither to witness the solemn services over the remains of one whose native death is mourned in Europe and America. The voices that glad-dened the hearts and won the admiration of hundreds of thousands in this and in other countries, has been forever hushed, but the charm of her singing will live in the bright recollections of those who have heard her for many years to come, and she will go down to posterity as one of the greatest contraltos this country ever produced.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES AND THE DE-

CLINE OF STOCKS.

Ex-Governor Smith is credited with saying:

"It is not to be believed that the great national question is settled. When the democrats carried Ohio, and gave out that they would have a majority in the next congress, there was a depression in property to the extent of $40-00,000 while confidence securities advanced in the London market.

The statements embraced in that paragraph were first made by Secretary Folger, in an Albany letter. The Madis-son Democrat denies that the democratic victory in Ohio had anything to do with the decline in stocks, and it charges the secretary of the treasury with lying for political effect.

When the news came that Ohio had been carried by the democrats and that the republican majority in the house of representatives had been wiped out, there was a noticeable decline in the value of stocks, although there was somewhat of a rally a day or two afterward. Whatever view the Madison Democrat may take of the question the fact nevertheless remains that as a rule, after democratic victories which have had any national significance, there has been a depreciation in the value of bonds and stocks, and business generally has been more or less affected by the political change.

When the greenback-democratic party carried Maine, electing several congressmen and capturing the state government, there was a marked decline in stocks.

It is not difficult to understand why democratic success at the polls, especially when issues of a national character are before the people, affects the price of property. The democratic party in congress, representing the democratic party throughout the country, believe in free trade, and if both houses of congress ever fell into the hands of that party, and it had a good working majority, there would be virtual free trade, and then would come the wreck of American manufacturing establishments, the industries of the country would be paralyzed, workmen by the tens of thousands would be thrown out of employment, and the country would be flooded with foreign goods made by the pauperized laborers of Europe. This would be one of the results of a democratic congress.

There is not a man in Rock county, it matters not whether he is a day laborer, a farmer, or a merchant, but that is interested in this question.

As a rule, what effects one affects the other. Their interests are virtually insepa-able, the success of one depending largely upon the success of the other.

Let every republican voter in the county think soberly of these things, and vote for his party that its principles may continue to be the life and the arrest support of all the industries of this country.

By order of Ward Committee.

BRIEFERS.

The inspectors of election in this city have completed the registry of voters.

A coat of white paint improves the looks of the telephone poles in our streets.

Prof. Severance's dancing school was well attended at Apollo hall last evening.

The advance sale of seats for Esmeralda will begin to-morrow morning at nine o'clock.

Remember the republican ward caucuses to-morrow evening. Every republican should attend.

Mr. E. B. Heimstreet has placed in front of his drugstore a couple of hand-some and nique hitching posts. They are emblematical of the drug business.

Miss Anna Fenner, aged 22 years, died at one o'clock this morning, at the home of her parents, on Taylor street, in the third ward, of typhoid fever. Her funeral will probably take place on Sunday.

Rooney & Charlton have put up a little two-horse power engine in their meat market which furnishes power for their sausage machine. It drives business when it starts and makes sausage on short order.

The examination of Charles A. Stuart, charged with the murder of Spencer Turner, in the town of Plymouth, will take place before Judge Patton, in the municipal court, on Saturday morning, commencing at 9 o'clock.

Mr. E. B. Heimstreet has just received a large number of the "Hamburg" or "Familien Kalender" for 1883, which are finely illustrated and contain a quantity of interesting reading matter. They are for gratuitous distribution. Call and get one.

A one horse runaway occurred on Court street at an early hour this morning. The horse belonged to Mr. J. C. Fredendall, and after being hitched to a light wagon, started on a run from the barn, but made straight for the store on Main street. It was only a one horse affair, and no damage was done.

Mr. Baldwin, clerk of the court, has sent, by request, a certificate of the death of Judge Conger, to Governor Rusk. Upon the receipt of the certificate, the governor will probably appoint Mr. Bennett judge of the Twelfth circuit. This will meet the approval of the entire bar, as Mr. Bennett is judge-elect, and will take the bench on the first of January.

The case of the State vs. Charles Wright, of Clinton, is being tried in the municipal court this afternoon. This is an assault and battery case, J. B. Smith being the complaining witness, and grew out of a disturbance on the cars between this city and Clinton on October 7th. O. E. Pierce and Phyl Norcross are the attorneys for the state, and Wm. Smith for the defense.

One of the most surprising freaks of nature for this latitude is the coming of a second crop of red raspberries. We have been shown some striking specimens of the second crop of these berries taken from the garden of Mr. D. D. Wilson. They are as large and delicious as the first crop, and almost as prolific. When a second yield of berries in the same year can be had in Wisconsin—berries fully developed and in every way matured—it speaks wonders, for the mildness of the season.

Mrs. Alvira Sawyer, of Emerald Grove, who made complaint yesterday, against her husband, Charles Sawyer, for ill-treatment, was found at a late hour last night by Marshal Hogan, in a beastly state of intoxication, and was taken to the county jail. It has been some years since Alvira appeared before the public in an abandoned condition, and had almost been forgotten, many supposing she was dead. Drunkenness is but one of her many unwomanly acts, and her sudden coming before the criminal courts, but revives her bad character of years ago.

There are a great many in Janesville who will take a deep interest in hearing that charming drama "Esmeralda," which will be played at Myers opera house next Wednesday evening. Those who want to study the drama in the mean time will find a dramatization of it in the Century Magazine of last February. The story originally appeared in the Scribner for May, 1877. The story was written by Mrs. P. H. Burnett, and dramatized by her husband, Frances Hodgson Burnett, and W. H. Gillette.

There are very many persons in Janesville who will be deeply touched to hear that Miss Emily Gavin, the talented reader, is dead. She had given three readings in Janesville, two at the opera house, and one at St. Patrick's church, and won a host of friends. She died in Algiers, where she was traveling with Mrs. C. H. McCormack, of Chicago. She had a disease of the lungs, and sailed for Europe about six weeks ago. She was the best female reader and actress in the west, and her early death will be deeply mourned.

A correspondent sends us a communication in regard to the frequent danger of crossing the railway track on Jackson street. The usual complaint is made that sometimes there are trains running in each direction at the same time near the Jackson street crossing, which bewilders many persons, especially ladies, who are driving, and it is not infrequent that there are narrow escapes from accidents. He also complains that many times cars are left standing on the track at the crossing while the engine is doing switch work in another part of the yard. It would be a good investment if the railway companies could afford to support a flagman at the Jackson street crossing.

Our Bonded Debt.

The five thousand dollar bonds authorized to be issued by the common council on Tuesday evening, were taken at an early hour on yesterday forenoon, and were negotiated at five per cent interest. These bonds are made payable the first of October, 1884. The people of Janesville are to be congratulated on the healthy condition of the finances. The entire bonded debt of the city now amounts to only $23,000, and it falls due as follows:

$3,000, Oct. 1st, 1883—bonds issued for the Central school building, bearing 8 per cent interest.

$2,000, Oct. 1st, 1881—bonds issued for fire engine, bearing 8 per cent interest.

$5,000, Oct. 1st, 1882—bonds issued for engine house, bearing 7 per cent interest.

$3,000, Oct. 1st, 1880—bonds issued for engine house, bearing 7 per cent interest.

$5,000, Oct. 1st, 1881—bonds issued in settlement of old railroad bonds, 5 per cent interest.

$23,000. Total bonded debt of the city.

No city in the west can show a better condition of finance.

People wishing their teeth to look white, should call at morning, at night, it sweetens the breath and refines the gums. Enhances the beauty of daughters and sons.

The Register.

The boards of registry of the several wards of this city have completed their labors, and the books of the several wards indicate the following number of voters:

First ward..... 515

Second ward..... 325

Third ward..... 361

Fourth ward..... 325

Fifth ward..... 295

Total..... 1,821

Personal.

Mr. Fred. Clemons is housed to-day, with a lung difficulty.

There are 52 pupils at the institution for the education of the blind, and a few are arriving every week.

Rogers & Hutchinson have just painted an elegant sign for Palmer & Stevens, druggist. It is a large one and a beauty.

Miss Nellie Langley, one of Janesville's fair lassies, has been making the Misses Lizzie and Nellie Martin a short visit.—Beloit Free Press.

Mr. John W. Tipney sprained one of his ankles quite severely this forenoon, by the giving way of the scaffolding upon which he was at work in the residence of Captain Putnam.

Mr. William Plankinton, of Milwaukee, president of the United States electric light company, and Mr. Charles Smart, superintendent and expert of the same company, are in the city. These gentlemen are here in the interest of the company, they represent, and have the control of the machine now being put up at the New McLean Manufacturing company's mill at Monterey. Mr. Smart is a life long acquaintance of Mr. Geo. C. McLean, superintendent of the Monterey mills, and of course, is right at home in his company.

Never Fails.

Mr. J. Leist, warehouseman for Lantz Bros., Buffalo, N. Y., says he had a swelling on the foot which he attributed to chilblains. He used Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil, and is troubled no longer.

Billet Taylor.

The Fay Templeton dramatic company will produce the comic opera of Billet Taylor on Monday evening next. This is one of the leading comic operas, and never fails to create great satisfaction. The reputation of Fay Templeton, the excellent make up of the company, and the well-known good qualities of the opera will insure a good house.

The Weather.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning registered 35 degrees above zero, and at 1 p. m. at 52 degrees above. One year ago to-day the register stood for the same hours 40 and 54 degrees above.

Washington, Oct. 26, 1 a. m.—The following are the indications for to-day:

Lake region—Slightly cooler, generally fair weather, northwest to southwest winds, and rising barometer.

Millinery Attractions.

Miss Mattie McCullagh & Co. have received one of the very finest and certainly the largest stock of millinery goods this market has ever seen. Their store is a regular gallery of millinery art—attractive, complete, and extensive in variety. In addition to all this, they keep nothing but skillful milliners, so that all work done is done in the very best style, perfectly satisfactory, and at reasonable prices. It will pay anyone to give this well known firm a call.

Register of Electors.
